Some Christiansburg locations are at the I-81/US 460 junction (about 20-30 minutes away), others are located closer in, with Blacksburg being closer than Christiansburg, but please confirm if they accept dogs. SureStay in Christiansburg accepts dogs and has good dog walking areas. I hope to have a discount or block of rooms available closer to the trial date.

Airbnb types of accommodations are located in areas as above, but also, more locally, in Newport, Eggleston, and Blacksburg.

Campgrounds include New River Junction (closest campground – allows both tent and RV parking, plus river tubing – call ahead, of course), there are a few private and county campgrounds in Giles County and Montgomery County (we’re on the border of these two counties), and Claytor Lake State Park (furthest campground, also has cabins.)

No onsite camping or car camping except by prior arrangement. Smaller RV’s may be allowed as space is available. Our gate is too narrow to allow larger RV’s.

Trial Site:

126 Genny Lane, Newport, VA 24128. GPS is accurate to our property in most cases, or very near our property in other cases. There will be signs to ensure that you find the correct lane and driveway.
